Poss Architecture

Poss Architecture designs structures based on their client's lifestyles, aesthetic desires, their aspirations, and their connection to the property itself.

Poss Architecture and Planning is the award-winning Aspen-based architecture firm that designed the overall look and feel of 323 Residences. In designing 323 Residences, Poss drew upon the wealth of knowledge gained from designing such world-class luxury properties such as the Residences at Little Nell and Hyatt Grand Aspen, where comfort, luxury and style combine to form the ideal second home mountain vacation retreat. Poss has specialized in designing innovative projects for over 25 years, from large-scale resorts to custom private residences.

Architectural and interior designs that meld together to capture the essence of the surrounding environment, while simultaneously respecting and preserving natural beauty, are the hallmarks of a Poss structure. Poss's designs embody a wealth of design concepts with an underlying focus on quality of space and detail and reflect the lifestyle and aesthetic Poss Architecture
